About the Novel Inside Out Back Again follows 10 year old H and her family as they struggle as refugees in 1970's America. The story begins in 1975 Saigon. H's father has been missing for years since leaving to fight in the war of Vietnam. The war is now over and the Americans are leaving. Communists from the North threaten the family's safety and freedom. They come to the hard decision of leaving their beloved home to seek shelter elsewhere. They settle on America and with the sponsorship of a kind cowboy the family start their new home in Alabama. Their struggles don't stop there however. Their first task is to learn English. H struggles with this as she enters school in America. She is met with bullies and miscommunication in language and culture. With the help of a kind neighbor H quickly learns how to survive in her new home. She begins to make friends at school and her family begin to prosper as well. The day comes when the family must make the difficult decision regarding her father but nothing will stop them from making the most of their new lives in America.
