Public Feminism in Times of Crisis Leila Easa,Jennifer Stager,2022-07-26 Public Feminism in Times of Crisis examines the public practice of feminism in the age of social media While their concept of public feminism emerges from a moment of acute crisis the Trump years and the Covid 19 pandemic Leila Easa and Jennifer Stager locate its foundations in history journeying through broad swatches of time looking for connections between the centuries through art and literature and culture Each chapter focuses on what public feminists do in the world Public feminists gain control over an archive that otherwise contains or excludes them they recover their own stories and subjective experiences sometimes for activist use they examine images and language that construct women in patriarchal texts they situate the individual within a collective and the collective within an individual they confront the limitations of such situating due to the containment of patriarchy and reclaim new systems of power in response and they resurface a deep history for the alternative strategies of memorializing they employ In navigating these practices the authors also attend to the material conditions of writing histories as well as those shaping and enabling public feminist acts and protests more broadly Listening to the Sirens Judith Perraino,2006 Judith Perraino investigates how music has been used throughout history to call into question norms of gender and sexuality Beginning with an examination of the mythology surrounding the Sirens she goes on to consider musical creatures gods humans and music addled listeners

Gender and Identity in Franz Grillparzer's Classical Dramas Alicia E. Ellis,2021-06-10 In this provocative work Alicia E Ellis provides readings of Franz Grillparzer's dramas as proto feminist formulations of female figures who refuse the gendered constraints of the ancient world The revisionist perspectives of the tragedies recover a latent feminist impulse in the stories of Sappho Medea and Hero as identities marked by linguistic refusals Activating new ideas of narrative experience Ellis transports the figure of the female to the seat of language testimony and presence Inflected by a taut impasse with a culture not produced to include female speech Ellis shows how Grillparzer's adaptations of classical materials offer a working theory about the ways in which new forms of language highlight female energy around autonomy and agency providing a corrective to previous cultural practices A failure to comply with social and political norms demonstrates how the three assessed and then resolved exclusionary acts through rebellious discursive performances that frame how contested identities can be thought and reformulated Readings in this study draw from the work of Sara Ahmed and Judith Butler on cultural framing and cultural translation in contemporary feminist critique Ahmed and Butler direct attention to the language of the texts what they mean and how they produce that meaning
