All express surprise that there has been no First Amendment test on the legality of a bounty offer in this particular case. Anti-Defamation League attorneys Abner L. Zimmerman and Murray Cohen filed a brief to support Marvin Zindler's efforts to continue with an injunction that barred the bounty offer. Cohen has answered our request for a current status report on the suit. Texas Supreme Court rulings, if they come, will be reported on by Zimmerman at a future date.

Leaves Jewish Community Center after 17 years of service Carol Blumenthal new Federation Human Resources Project Coordinator

Carol Blumenthal will soon assume new duties with the Jewish Federation of Greater Houston as Senior Adults Project Coordinator for a recent grant received by the organization. She is leaving the Jewish Community Center after 17 years of service as Senior Adults Director.

Her career at the Center was marked by significant and creative growth of services to senior adults. Mrs. Blumenthal brings her talents to a position which provides her with new opportunities.

As Project Coordinator for a special grant funded by the Texas Department of Human Resources, she will be developing and coordinating services for senior citizens in the new J. B. Goldberg Brith Shalom Senior Citizens Apartments, currently under construction. In addition, she will be working closely with various state agencies in writing grant proposals to benefit senior adults with new programs in the Brith Shalom project. She will also be working closely with the Federation's Commission on Aging in coordinating existing services for older people throughout the community.

While at the Jewish Community Center, her leadership saw the department grow from 150 senior adults to the current level of service which has a membership of over 800. Over the years, she has participated in a wide range of conferences, seminars and training seminars, and has achieved an outstanding reputation in Jewish Community Centers in the United States for expertise in service to senior adults.

Having made the decision to explore new career opportunities, Carol is happy that she is staying in the Houston area, and in particular that she will continue in service to the Jewish community. A smooth transition from duties at the Center to her new duties at the Senior Citizens Apartments has been worked out; she will continue with the Center on a half time basis throughout the end of March and will assume her full time responsibilities effective April 1.
