Candidates Must File In Clerks Office

Nancy Young, Van Zandt County Clerk, stated that any officer, judge or justice seeking election or any person seeking election to any office, before making any expenditures or receive any contributions in the campaign of "individuals" must file in the Van Zandt County Clerk's Office with the county clerk.

Also, Mr. Young said, any candidate's sworn statement of contributions and expenditures must be filed up at the county clerk's office.

"Once again the slide is clean and ready for a new dash start. Wonder if he since if we could chart the whole year in advance and see if we can't win it. Instead of accumulating it day by day? Don't you think it's a warrier, not shocks or illness? Just a happy, playful, enjoyable, 365 days without any interruptions? ... Chase your eyes, imagine it, it's all yours. That's the kind of year we wish for all of you (and us) in brand new 1975."

Sure hope they don't get a case of pneumonia. Oh, yes, it's Monday. The Longhorns acted like they had forgotten to bring the game along and what a football was! Notre Dame deserved the win. Oh, Arkansas game, didn't they? Well, two hours of football for one day is enough. Let's have our strength for the Deaver Brown's!
