In the First Country of Places Louise Chawla,1994-01-01 These authors describe their relationships with nature and childhood in the context of major Western traditions of philosophy and religion Each poet confronts the Western image of an alien nature within which histories of individuals are insignificant and three poets elaborate alternative versions of connection with nature and their own past Life-span Development Leonie Sugarman,2004-03-01 This thorough revision of the highly successful first edition of Life Span Development offers the reader a wide ranging and thought provoking account of human development throughout the lifespan The lifespan approach emphasises that development does not stop when we cease to be adolescents but goes on throughout adulthood and into old age In initial chapters Leonie Sugarman outlines the issues surrounding the notion of development and how it can be studied including reviews of the work of key theorists Erikson Levinson and Gould She goes on to consider the different ways in which the life course can be construed as a series of age related stages as a cumulative sequence as a series of developmental tasks as a series of key life events and transitions or as a narrative construction which creates a sense of dynamic continuity A final chapter looks at how people cope the resources that are available and the theoretical and practical issues regarding interventions to assist them in the process New to this edition is increased coverage of the topical issue of successful ageing and a new chapter on the increasingly popular narrative approach to lifespan development This edition is also more student friendly with exercises in self reflection that encourage the reader to look at the development of their own lives or those of their current or future clients Boxed material highlighting major theories and clarifying concepts is also included This book will be invaluable for students of developmental and occupational psychology and professionals in the fields of health management education and social work The Expository Times James Hastings,Ann Wilson Hastings,Edward Hastings,1913 The life and times of Jesus the Messiah Alfred Edersheim,1887 The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1902 The Liberal and the New Dispensation ,1893 The Athenaeum ,1903 San Francisco Daily Times ,1920 Al-Raida ,2003 The Living Age ,1895 Littell's Living Age ,1884 The Literary World ,1890 T.P.'s Weekly ,1929 The Academy ,1907 The Atlantic Monthly ,1913 Teaching Working Class Sherry Lee Linkon,1999 Since the 1970s working class individuals have made up an increasing proportion of students enrolled in institutions of higher education At the same time working class studies has emerged as an academic discipline updating a long tradition of scholarship on labour history and proletarian literature to include discussions of working class culture intersections of class with ethnicity and studies of the representation of the working class in popular culture These developments have generated ideas about teaching that incorporate both a sensitivity to the working class roots of many students and the inclusion of course content informed by an awareness of class culture The Independent
