The Wonderful Wizard of Oz

by L. Frank Baum

"What a wonderful world!" said Dorothy when she stepped out of her house and into the land of Oz. "There is no one around here except the scarecrow, the tin man, and the lion. They are all so friendly and kind. I like them very much."

As she stepped out, she saw a man in a blue coat who looked like a wizard. "What are you doing here?" he asked. "I am looking for the man who can help me get home. I have been lost for a long time."

The wizard said, "I can help you, but you must first give me something. What do you have?" Dorothy said, "I have a little basket of fruit. I picked it from a tree in my garden."

The wizard took the basket and said, "I will give you what you want, but you must first give me something. What do you have?" Dorothy said, "I have a little basket of fruit. I picked it from a tree in my garden."

Designed to teach the reading skills that are basic to reading fluency, our resource emphasizes the primary building blocks of reading acquisition. Start off by identifying the main idea of a passage. Find out how details will point to the most important part of a story. Then use graphic organizers to help identify context clues. Find out what questions to ask before drawing conclusions. Gather all the facts and prior knowledge to help. Learn all about making inferences and how clues from the text and your own knowledge and experiences will tell you what the author is trying to say. Discover the differences between facts and opinions. Learning to read between the lines will help with comprehension. Finally, discover transition words as you learn about sequencing. Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy, reproducible writing tasks, crossword, word search, comprehension quiz, and answer key are also included.
