Nelson,2019-12-10 This volume analyses the societal legacy of Lutheranism in Finland in broad terms It contributes to the recent renewed interest in the history of religion in Finland and the Nordic countries by bringing together researchers in history political science economics social psychology education linguistics media studies and theology to examine the mutual relationship between Lutheranism and society in Finland The two main foci are i the historical effects of the Reformation and its aftermath on societal structures and on national identity values linguistic culture education and the economy and ii the adaptation of the church and its theology to changes in the geo political and sociocultural context Important sub themes include nationalism and religion the secularization and institutionalization of traditional values multiple Protestant ethics and long continuities in history Overall the book argues that large changes in societies cannot be explained via secular factors alone such as economic development or urbanization but that factors pertaining to religion provide substantial explanatory power for understanding societal change and the resulting societal structures Constructing Faith in the Antipodes Lisa Marie Daunt,2025-12-10 Over 1 650 churches were built in Queensland Australia between 1945 and 1977 They constitute some of the most notable modern architecture in the state and reveal tensions surrounding modernism s role in cultural expression and regional identity While much research has focused on post war modern church architecture in the Global North little has been done on the Global South This book offers a particular perspective on modernist church architecture differing from accounts of buildings in the northern hemisphere as it highlights how church architecture in Queensland was shaped by its very specific time and place a young and developing state covering a vast area of land sparsely populated highly multi denominational and located in the antipodes Modern architectural developments and emergent religious ideas did not simply transfer to Queensland Rather architectural ideas were circulated globally allowing for a global narrative This landmark study seeks to broaden views and methods for future research both locally and internationally Richly illustrated Constructing Faith in the Antipodes combines both a chronological and a thematic approach to narrate modern church architectural history and offers a fascinating glimpse into a distinct collection of modern church buildings The Urban World and the First Christians Steve Walton,Paul Trebilco,David W. J. Gill,2017-09-18 In the tradition of The First Urban Christians by Wayne Meeks this book explores the relationship between the earliest Christians and the city environment Experts in classics early Christianity and human geography analyze the growth development and self understanding of the early Christian movement in urban settings The book s contributors first look at how the urban physical cultural and social environments of the ancient Mediterranean basin affected the ways in which early Christianity progressed They then turn to how the earliest Christians thought and theologized in their engagement with cities With a rich variety of expertise and scholarship The Urban World and the First Christians is an important contribution to the understanding of early Christianity Chase's Calendar of Events 2014 with CD-ROM Editors of Chase's Calendar of Events,2013-10-10 4 000 notable birthdays 1 400 historical anniversaries 650 national and international holidays 160 religious holidays and thousands of additional days of note from all over the globe Cover The Catholic Encyclopedia ,1914 The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles George Herbermann,1914 Immigration and Faith Hoover, Brett C.,2021 Immigration and Faith is a comprehensive textbook for theology and religious studies courses that addresses migration to and within the United States and beyond From Page to Proclamation Clare Schwantes,2024-11-19 This pioneering work invites readers to embark on a transformative journey through the heart of liturgical worship and scriptural proclamation It introduces a new tier to biblical hermeneutics exploring the ways in which the liturgical event and the ecclesial community color the interpretation of Scripture Weaving together insights from Gadamer s philosophical hermeneutics with the rich tapestry of Catholic liturgy the author proposes that the meaning of a proclaimed Scripture passage emerges not from an analysis of the text itself but in the vibrant interplay of multiple horizons Bible Lectionary homilist and worshiper Through a lens of play and festival the intricate relationship between tradition and contemporary worship is explored showcasing how the sensory richness of the Catholic liturgy shapes the interpretation of Scripture It challenges readers to view the Lectionary as a living text intimately connected to the worshiping assembly and the modern world This thought provoking work offers both theoretical insights and practical implications for scholars clergy and worshipers alike It inspires a fresh perspective that resonates with the contemporary Catholic experience guiding worshipers toward a profound engagement with Scripture in the dynamic event of liturgical celebration Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress,1979 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association.
