City Approves Homestead Exemption For Age Group

Final decision has been granted by the City of Canton in favor of the proposed tax exemption for those 65 and over according to Councilman Billy Packer. Mr. Packer introduced the proposal in the March meeting of the council. Pending approval of the bonding company.

Mr. Packer has announced that the exemption is for $2000 for residents only, which would amount of a reduction of $20 on a residence only under the present law.

"Property other than the one house you live in is not due for exemption," he further explained.

People who qualify for the exemption are urged to go by the city office and apply as soon as possible, so that it can be determined how the exemption will affect the present tax structure.
