Tibet Through the Red Box Peter Sís, 2014-07-15 A father's diary and an artist's memoir By the author of the best selling Three Golden Keys While my father was in China and Tibet he kept a diary which was later locked in a red box We weren't allowed to touch the box The stories I heard as a little boy faded to a hazy dream and my drawings from that time make no sense I cannot decipher them It was not until I myself had gone far far away and received the message from my father that I became interested in the red box again In New York Peter Sís receives a letter from his father The Red Box is now yours it says The brief note worries him and pulls him back to Prague where the contents of the red box explain the mystery of his father's long absence during the 1950s Czechoslovakia was behind the iron curtain Vladimir Sís a documentary filmmaker of considerable talent was drafted into the army and sent to China to teach filmmaking He left his wife daughter and young son Peter thinking he would be home for Christmas Two Christmases would pass before he was heard from again Vladimir Sís was lost in Tibet He met with the Dalai Lama he witnessed China's invasion of Tibet When he returned to Prague he dared not talk to his friends about all he had seen and experienced But over and over again he told Peter about his Tibetan adventures Weaving their two stories together that of the father lost in Tibet and that of the small boy in Prague lost without his father Sís draws from his father's diary and from his own recollections of his father's incredible tales to reach a spiritual homecoming between father and son With his sublime pictures inspired by Tibetan Buddhist art and linking history to memory Peter Sís gives us an extraordinary book a work of singular artistry and rare imagination This title has Common Core connections Tibet Through the Red Box is a 1999 Caldecott Honor Book and the winner of the 1999 Boston Globe Horn Book Award for Special Citation The Big Book of Picture-Book Authors and Illustrators James Preller, 2001 Introduce children to 75 favorite authors and illustrators with this all in one resource The lively profiles in this collection provide insight into the lives work inspiration and creative process of these talented writers and artists Share these fascinating mini biographies with students to enhance author studies and help your students read with greater enthusiasm and understanding Book jacket

Talk about Books! Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2003-07-30 Book clubs literature circles and reading groups are great ways to promote literacy and books to young readers This new guide provides everything you need to run a dynamic no fuss book discussion group with elementary and middle school students Featuring 15 titles of diverse genres it offers discussion topics and activity ideas for some of the best new reads for kids Brought to you by the authors of the highly acclaimed Reading Rules Motivating Teens to Read this guide is an outstanding resource for starting and running a stellar literary discussion group whether it's in a school public library or community center Grades 4-8 How to Make a Life Madeline Uraneck, 2018-04-11 An immigration story of crossing cultural bridges and finding family When Madeline Uraneck said hello to the Tibetan woman cleaning her office cubicle she never imagined the moment would change her life After learning that Tenzin Kalsang had left her husband and four children behind in a Tibetan refugee settlement in India to try to forge a better life for them Madeline took on the task of helping her apply for US visas When the family reunited in their new Midwestern home Madeline became swept up in their lives from homework and soccer games to family dinners and shared holiday traditions By reaching out she found more than she bargained for a family who welcomed her as their own and taught her more than she offered them An evocative blend of immersion journalism and memoir How to Make a Life shares the immigration story of a Tibetan refugee family who crossed real and cultural bridges to make a life in Madison Wisconsin with the assistance of the Midwestern woman they befriended From tales of escaping Tibet over the Himalayas to striking a balance between old traditions with new to bridging divides one friendly gesture at a time readers will expand their understanding of family culture and belonging Crossover Picturebooks Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-06-17 This book situates the picturebook genre within the widespread international phenomenon of crossover literature examining an international corpus of picturebooks including artists books wordless picturebooks and celebrity picturebooks that appeal to readers of all ages Focusing on contemporary picturebooks Sandra Beckett shows that the picturebook has traditionally been seen as a children's genre but in the eyes of many authors illustrators and publishers it is a narrative form that can address any and all age groups Innovative graphics and formats as well as the creative often complex dialogue between text and image provide multiple levels of meaning and invite readers of all ages to consider texts that are primarily marketed as children's books The interplay of text and image that distinguishes the picturebook from other forms of fiction and makes it a unique art form also makes it the ultimate crossover genre Crossover picturebooks are often very complex texts that are challenging for adults as well as children Many are characterized by difficult adult themes genre blending metafictional discourse intertextuality sophisticated graphics and complex text image interplay Exciting experiments with new formats and techniques as well as novel interactions with new media and technologies have made the picturebook one of the most vibrant and innovative contemporary literary genres one that seems to know no boundaries Crossover Picturebooks is a valuable addition to the study of a genre that is gaining increasing recognition and appreciation and contributes significantly to the field of children's literature as a whole Developing Better Readers and Writers Using Caldecott Books Kathryn I.
