offers avenues for the development of decolonial literacy to support the work of Indigenizing education In considering the importance of engaging in decolonizing and Indigenizing approaches to education through Slow and Indigenous pedagogies using the lens of place based and land based education Teaching Where You Are presents a text useful for teachers and educators grappling with the ongoing impacts of colonialism and the soul work of how to decolonize and rehumanize education in meaningful ways

Everyday Schooling in the Digital Age Neil Selwyn, Selena Nemorin, Scott Bulfin, Nicola F. Johnson, 2017-11-20 Today's high schools are increasingly based around the use of digital technologies Students and teachers are encouraged to Bring Your Own Device teaching takes place through learning management systems and educators are rushing to implement innovations such as flipped classrooms personalized learning analytics and maker technologies Yet despite these developments the core processes of school appear to have altered little over the past 50 years As the twenty first century progresses concerns are growing that the basic model of school is broken and no longer fit for purpose This book moves beyond the hype and examines the everyday realities of digital technology use in today's high schools Based on a major ethnographic study of three contrasting Australian schools the authors lay bare the reasons underlying the inconsistent impact of digital technologies on day to day schooling The book examines leadership and management of technology in schools the changing nature of teachers work in the digital age as well as student mis uses of technologies in and out of classrooms In depth case studies are presented of the adoption of personalized learning apps social media and 3D printers These investigations all lead to a detailed understanding of why schools make use of digital technologies in the ways that they do Everyday Schooling in the Digital Age High School High Tech offers a revealing analysis of the realities of contemporary schools and schooling drawing on arguments and debates from various academic literatures such as policy studies sociology of education social studies of technology media and communication studies Over the course of ten wide ranging chapters a range of suggestions are developed as to how the full potential of digital technology might be realized within schools Written in a detailed but accessible manner this book offers an ambitious critique that is essential reading for anyone interested in the fast changing nature of contemporary education

The ^AOxford Handbook of Women and Competition Maryanne L. Fisher, 2017-08-14 The Oxford Handbook of Women and Competition is one of the first scholarly volumes to focus specifically on competition and the competitive forces between women Chapters provide readers with a definitive view of the current state of research and collectively address the adaptive and socio cultural foundations of women s competitive behavior motivations and cognitions

Rebellious Cooks and Recipe Writing in Communist Bulgaria Albena Shkodrova,2021-01-28 How did people exist and resist in their daily lives under Soviet control in the Cold War period Shkodrova s monograph shows how in communist Bulgaria many women passionately exchanged recipes with friends and strangers to build substantial and impressive private collections of recipes This activity was borderline contraband in going against the general disapproval of home cooking that formed part of the ideology of communism in which home cooking was considered household slavery and an agent of patriarchalism Private recipe collections were by far the preferred written source of culinary information more popular than the state approved commercial cookbooks Shkodrova shows how these recipe collections held many different meanings for the women who collected them from helping to navigate the communist economy to enabling new friendships to be developed while engaging safely in power relations and cultivating a sense of individual identity in a society where collective existence was prioritised and exalted Drawing on primary sources including scrapbook cookbooks and working from the establishment of cookery classes before communism and their obliteration thereafter Shkodrova presents a structured outline of the meanings of recipes exchange and home cooking for Bulgarian women under communism
