

A photograph of three young women at a physics help station. The woman on the left, with blonde hair and glasses, is holding a red ball and a clear plastic tube, demonstrating a physics concept. The woman in the center, with brown hair, is looking down at a white paper, possibly a worksheet or diagram. The woman on the right, with long blonde hair, is smiling and looking towards the camera. They are standing in front of a yellow wall with a blue banner that reads "PHYSICS HELP STATION".
