Sidonie Middleton, 2020-06-15 A life threatening flood leads to a frivolous lawsuit a suit based on unfounded meritless claims This simple injustice which should have been quickly resolved turns into a litigation nightmare that would go on for years But the victim an elderly widow takes on the lawyers in court acting as her own attorney and wins From the day of the devastating flash flood to the final court judgment and the zinger of a surprise ending the story ranges from thrilling to heart breaking to hilariously funny The author's hope is that by sharing her experiences the readers will benefit from them and become more aware of the disastrous effects of frivolous lawsuits legal claims without merit and consider possible ways to counter or defend against them That aside the book is a page turner to rival the most compelling thriller It is not a novel a fictitious work of creative writing No it is incredible but true and truth is stranger than fiction and often a whole lot funnier
