Curriculum Renewal for Islamic Education

Nadeem A. Memon, Mariam Alhashmi, Mohamad Abdalla, 2021-05-10 This book demonstrates why and how it is necessary to redesign Islamic Education curriculum in the K 12 sector globally From Western public schools that integrate Muslim perspectives to be culturally responsive to public and private schools in Muslim minority and majority contexts that teach Islamic studies as a core subject or teach from an Islamic perspective the volume highlights the unique global and sociocultural contexts that support the disparate trajectories of Islamic Education curricula Divided into three distinct parts the text discusses current Islamic education curricula and considers new areas for inclusion as part of a general renewal effort that includes developing curricula from an Islamic worldview and the current aspirations of Islamic education globally By providing insights on key concepts related to teaching Islam case studies of curriculum achievements and pitfalls and suggested processes and pillars for curriculum development contributors present possibilities for researchers and educators to think about teaching Islam differently This text will benefit researchers doctoral students and academics in the fields of secondary education Islamic education and curriculum studies Those interested in religious education as well as the sociology and theory of religion more broadly will also enjoy this volume

The Oxford Handbook of American Islam

Yvonne Y. Haddad, Jane I. Smith, 2014-11-03 Islam has been part of the increasingly complex American religious scene for well over a century and was brought into more dramatic focus by the attacks of September 11 2001 American Islam is practiced by a unique blend of immigrants and American born Muslims The immigrants have come from all corners of the world they include rich and poor well educated and illiterate those from upper and lower classes as well as economic and political refugees The community's diversity has been enhanced by the conversion of African Americans Latinos and others making it the most heterogeneous Muslim community in the world With an up to the minute analysis by thirty of the top scholars in the field this handbook covers the growth of Islam in America from the earliest Muslims to set foot on American soil to the current wave of Islamophobia Topics covered include the development of African American Islam pre and post WWII immigrants Sunni Shi'ite sectarian and Sufi movements in America the role and status of women marriage and family and the Americanization of Islamic culture Throughout these chapters the contributors explore the meaning of religious identity in the context of race ethnicity gender and politics both within the American Islamic community and in relation to international Islam      The Crucifix on Mecca's Front Porch David Pinault, 2018-08-22 This book on Islam has an unusual perspective. It argues that a critically minded examination of Islam can help Christians achieve a deeper appreciation of the unique truths of their own faith. It draws on the author's personal experiences living in Islamic countries and his fieldwork with persecuted Christian minority communities especially in Pakistan, Yemen, Egypt, and Indonesia. It includes the author's own original translations of Islamic texts in Arabic, Persian, and Urdu, as well as primary source materials in Latin that were written by Christian participants in the Crusades. The author focuses on Muslim interactions with the Christian tradition. He examines and takes issue with the misguided approach of those Christians and Muslims who, in the interests of Christian-Muslim rapprochement, minimize theological differences between the two faiths, especially in the area of Christology. Such attempts at rapport, he writes, do a profound disservice to both religions. Illustrating the Muslim view of Christ with Islamic polemical texts from the eleventh to the twenty-first centuries, the author draws on Hans Urs von Balthasar and other theologians of kenotic Christology to show how Islamic condemnations of divine weakness and neediness can deepen our appreciation of what is most uniquely Christian in our vision of Jesus as God made man who voluntarily experiences weakness, suffering, and death in solidarity with all human beings. Both timely and urgently needed, The Crucifix on Mecca's Front Porch invites readers to reflect on the stark differences between Christianity and Islam and to appreciate the uniqueness of the Christian faith.      Curriculum Guide for Islamic Studies Talat Sultan, 1991, 110 pages      The Islamic

Society of Central Jersey: Its Historical Journey The ISCJ History Project Team, 2018-08-30 This book tells the story of the Islamic Society of Central Jersey (ISCJ) and the pioneers who came to New Jersey from different countries of the world for education and jobs, starting in the 1950s with aspirations for a good life for themselves and their children. And to provide religious guidance, the Islamic Center of Central Jersey was conceived where Muslims and Non-Muslims could go to seek true knowledge of Islam from the resident Imams, teachers, and renowned scholars from around the world.      Graduate Programs in Business, Education, Information Studies, Law & Social Work 2014 (Grad 6) Peterson's, 2013-12-20 Peterson's Graduate Programs in Business, Education, Information Studies, Law, Social Work 2014 contains comprehensive profiles of more than 11,000 graduate programs in disciplines such as accounting, finance, business administration, management, education, human resources, international business, law, library information studies, marketing, social work, transportation, management, and more.
