We Are All Beautifully Different An Anti Bullying Book For Young Children:

We Are All Beautifully Different Lcswr Jennifer Kempner, 2013-12 This is a lovely and much needed book that provides an opportunity to open the conversation regarding bullying with our youngest children. In a question and brainstorm answers format Ms. Kempner's book will enable families to identify specific episodes of bullying that can occur in preschool and elementary school age children. Once identified, the readers are asked to think of alternative ways to handle the situations in which bullying can but doesn't have to occur. Susan D. Boulware, M.D. Assistant Clinical Professor in Pediatrics, Yale Medical University. Endorsed and supported by The Turner's Syndrome Society of the United States (TSSUS) This anti-bullying book is designed to teach children to have empathy towards other children that may be perceived as different. The book helps children realize how painful it is to be teased, isolated, or bullied, which hopefully will inspire them to refrain from treating others in this way. From the author: We need to come together as parents, professionals, and educators to increase the awareness of the differences in many of our children today. We need to teach our children tolerance and acceptance of their peers who are so-called different. As diagnoses of Autism, ADHD, and other syndromes and issues are on the rise, we have no choice but to use awareness and understanding to reinforce empathy in our children. Children that are different should not be made to feel like outcasts; they need to be understood, not shunned or ignored. The author, Jennifer Kempner, LCSWR, is a mother of three children and a New York State licensed clinical therapist. She received her Master's Degree in Clinical Social Work, specializing in Child and Family Counseling, from Fordham University in New York. She has been working with children, adolescents, and adults in various settings since 1999. She currently practices in Dutchess County, New York. The Anti-bullying and Teasing Book for Preschool Classrooms Barbara Sprung, Merle Froschl, Blythe Simone Farb, Hinitz, 2005 In preschool, children encounter their first experiences in forming and joining social groups outside their family. It is natural for them to experiment with social interactions while learning about their world. In this guide, teasing and bullying are addressed as a continuum of intentionally hurtful behavior, from making fun of someone to repetitive physical abuse. Creating a caring environment at the beginning of school reduces the need for children to assert themselves through negative behavior such as teasing and bullying. With The Anti-Bullying and Teasing Book, teachers of young children can address this behavior before it develops. Special features of this book include information on family-school partnerships to engage families in the development of a caring community and to reinforce teachings about empathy and mutual respect. Techniques to teach children how to think about and manage their feelings in a safe and appropriate way. Tips for teaching children how to act appropriately as a bystander. Children who stand by while a friend is being teased and bullied may be uneasy or even scared that they might be next. They feel powerless and learn negative ways to interact with others. Teachers have the opportunity to work with bystanders helping them to develop the confidence to stand up for a friend. As a result children will become more able to stand up for themselves and not tolerate teasing and bullying behavior. The Anti Bullying and Teasing Book creates an environment that reinforces the positive messages essential to children's sense of safety and well being. Some such messages are quoted from Hurt Free Schools by M Christine Mattise. If you are hurt on the playground someone will come to see if you are all right. If you are alone you are welcome to join in a game. If you are being teased other children will come and tell the teaser to stop. If you need help ask an adult. When certain social milestones and goals are achieved children can easily live and work within their world. According to the National Association for the Education of Young Children NAEYC Code of Ethical Conduct these goals can be stated in terms of democratic life skills which include the ability to see one's self as a worthy individual and a capable member of the group, express strong emotions in non hurting ways, solve problems ethically and intelligently, be understanding of the feeling and viewpoints of others, work cooperatively in groups with acceptance of the human differences among members. Teachers have a major influence on how children view themselves within the larger world. Children mimic teachers language and interactions. By creating a climate of mutual respect teachers can help children learn to develop empathy and treat others fairly and kindly and to stand up for themselves and their friends in safe and developmentally appropriate ways. The Anti Bullying and Teasing Book will help teachers create a school environment in which all children feel comfortable, safe and welcome.

From Critical Literacy to Critical Pedagogy in English Language Teaching Melina Porto, 2022-09-16. With a Foreword by Hugh Starkey and Audrey Osler and Afterwords by Graham Crookes, Hilary Janks and Allan Luke. This book promotes critical language education and illustrates how a critical agenda can be enacted in English language education in real classrooms. It presents four cases located in primary and secondary schools in the province of Buenos Aires in Argentina in contexts that can be characterised as vulnerable or difficult. It describes the possibilities, challenges and limitations of this critical agenda using students drawings, posters, leaflets, artwork, classroom activities and conversational data as foundation and including the voices of local teachers in their classrooms. Importantly these teachers used teacher made locally produced critical post method materials described by the author of those materials in one of the chapters. In this way the book offers a unique balance of researcher, teacher and materials writer voices. These materials are included in the book and can help language teachers around the world to introduce critical perspectives in their specific contexts. The book is appealing to researchers, classroom teachers, teacher educators and materials writers and developers interested in critical language education.

No Outsiders: We Belong Here Andrew Moffat, 2024-04-18. What does modern Britain look like and how do we prepare our children for life in an ever changing world? We want children to be able to live and work anywhere and with anyone without fear and without judgement. Schools need a strong, confident framework where young people are taught to explore and value their own identities and the identities of others No Outsiders is a whole school ethos teaching children that everyone is different and everyone belongs there are no outsiders at our school because everyone is welcome Using this book and a common language threaded throughout the school we can work to challenge prejudice in wider society The book includes 43 lesson plans and assembly ideas A framework to deliver an inclusive curriculum built around picture books written for children aged 4 11 many of which will already be in school libraries The stories of Head Teachers speaking of their journeys challenges and successes Innovative ways to keep parents informed and involved Steeped in current practice and easy to implement in your school No Outsiders We Belong Here expands the No Outsiders collection with a wealth of new lesson plans and will be an essential resource for primary school teachers school leaders and teacher training providers

The Great True Happiness Challenge! Lavinia Bernice Wilson,2014-05-09 What makes you happy Sometimes people will say If only I had that car or that lover or that house then I would be happy but that kind of happiness is always short lived because it s always based on something or someone else I would like you to consider for a moment that true happiness can actually be created by you In life you may think you need certain things or certain people to be happy We don t need to rely on our happiness coming from another person s actions or things Every single one of us has the ability to create our own happiness True happiness is not given it grows inside of you and I m going to show you how you can create this right now
