Baptist Commonwealth ,1908 Mervyn Hembury: Principal and Preacher Frank D. Rees,2022-03-31 Mervyn Hembury migrated to Melbourne Australia in 1959 Through the sheer force of his personality he led the transformation of a small impoverished Baptist seminary to the premier Baptist institution in Australia From the humble life of a Welsh mining village Hembury proceeded to university studies in Cardiff and then Oxford The story begins with the cultural and religious background of Hembury's early life as a Welsh Baptist exploring the distinctive ethos of the institutions where he studied during and just after the Second World War Hembury's lifelong passion for history is revealed through an examination of his Oxford thesis and subsequent publications about the puritan groups from which the Baptist movement arose In Melbourne he quickly became known as a brilliant preacher and media presenter As professor and principal of Whitley College Hembury's central concern was ministerial education that would serve the churches in a rapidly changing world For Hembury the central task of ministry was preaching and it is with this dimension of his life that the biography begins and concludes drawing upon sermon records to demonstrate his commitment as a servant of the word of God The Complete Guide to Events

Baptists in World Service American Baptist Foreign Mission Society,1918 Sin and Grace TONY LANE,2020-11-19 Tony Lane surveys a wide range of doctrines relating to our experience of God's gracious salvation He begins with our need as sinful and fallen people moves on to consider what is involved in becoming a Christian majoring on justification being put right with God and concludes with sanctification living the Christian life As well as expounding various aspects of these doctrines Lane introduces their historical roots in classical expositions Lane warns that these doctrines are in danger of being lost by significant sectors of evangelicalism and he explains them clearly He encourages readers to hold firmly to an evangelical soteriology having a greater understanding of it and a stronger conviction of its truth with experience of its application to Christian discipleship

Wisconsin Baptist ,1930    Baptist Missionary Review ,1922    The Watchman-examiner ,1929    The Secularization of Baptism Mark G. McKim,2025-01-31 Does God actually do anything in baptism Is it more than just a symbol Most early Baptists would have answered yes Most Baptists today would answer no How and why did this change happen and does it matter Providing thorough documentation of the changing understandings of baptism among American Canadian and English Baptists from the 1600s to the present day The Secularization of Baptism demonstrates that four factors led to the symbolic only position becoming dominant These were suspicion in reaction to Roman Catholicism of the idea of God revealing himself through the physical the influence of the Enlightenment and embarrassment with claims that God could be acting in the world today reaction against the Oxford Movement and reaction against the understanding of baptism advocated by the Disciples of Christ Campbellites The now dominant symbolic only position so focuses attention on what the believer is doing in baptism that God is seen as largely absent from and doing nothing through the rite in effect believers baptism has been secularized A carefully reasoned biblical and theological argument is made for a return to the Regular Particular Baptist view that God is both profoundly spiritually present and active in baptism while at the same time rejecting the sacramentalist position advocated by a small number of mid twentieth and twenty first century Baptists such as H Wheeler Robinson George Beasley Murray Stanley K Fowler and Anthony R Cross    The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,David Remnick,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,1933    Virginia Medical Monthly (1918-). ,1920    Baptist Missionary Magazine ,1898    The Life and Work of Charles Haddon Spurgeon Godfrey Holden Pike,1892    New York Supreme Court Appellate Division ,    The Sabbath Recorder ,1929
