Beyond Productivity Kim Hensley Owens,Derek Van Ittersum,2023-11-15 In Beyond Productivity a wide range of contributors share honest narratives of the sometimes impossible conditions that scholars face when completing writing projects The essays provide backstage views of the authors varying approaches to moving forward when the desire to produce wanes when deciding a project is not working when working within and around and redefining academic productivity expectations and when writing with ever changing bodies that do not always function as expected This collection positions scholarly writers ways of writing as a form of flexible evolving knowledge By exhibiting what is lost and gained through successive rounds of transformation and adaptation over time the contributors offer a sustainable understanding and practice of process one that looks beyond productivity as the primary measure of success Each presents a fluid understanding of the writing process illustrating its deeply personal nature and revealing how fragmented and disjointed methods and experiences can highlight what is precious about writing Beyond Productivity determines anew the use and value of scholarly writing and the processes that produce it both within and beyond the context of the losses constraints and adaptations associated with the COVID 19 pandemic Reconceptualizing Early Career Teacher Mentoring as

Reggio-Inspired Christina Hanawalt,Brooke Hofsess,2023-04-20 Reconceptualizing Early Career Teacher Mentoring as Reggio Inspired presents an innovative approach to early career art teacher mentoring informed by both the philosophy of Reggio Emilia and an ontology of immanence while simultaneously illuminating the experiences of the teacher participants as co inquirers within the contemporary milieu of public education in the United States Readers are invited to travel with a group of teacher educators and early career PK 12 art teachers across a four year journey to experience the evolving nature of a collaborative inquiry through mentoring as research the Teacher Inquiry Group TIG The authors share significant insights regarding what it means to be an early career art teacher especially in an educational climate steeped in neoliberal agendas standardization and accountability and make potent suggestions for re visioning entrenched approaches to mentoring and professional learning that better account for the inherent complexities of teaching in schools Advocating for more complex understandings regarding teacher subjectivity and the contextual forces at work in schools the authors provoke an expanded vision of how mentoring can be imagined practiced and lived in current educational contexts The authors employ key orientations grounded in the Reggio Emilia philosophy to reimagine an under researched and undertheorized area of study in art education early career teacher mentoring that has implications for teachers at all levels and across all disciplines This volume is essential reading for scholars and professionals across the fields of art education teacher preparation teacher education and mentoring It will appeal to educational researchers K 12 practitioners teacher educators and administrators working with new teachers as well as those interested in mentoring Reggio Emilia professional learning and development art and aesthetic education and emergent process oriented research methodologies

#artselfie Simon Castets, DIS (Organization), 2014 artselfie opens with an incisive remark by Douglas Coupland who warns us that Selfies are mirrors we can freeze Selfies allow us to see how others look at themselves in a mirror making their modeling face when nobody is around except these days everybody is around everywhere all the time artselfie emerged in 2012 right as the recent photographic phenomenon known as the selfie reached its tipping point It was subsequently activated by New York based collective DIS as an aggregated mode of art tourism and documentation These selfies and their dialogue with art are an opportunity to revisit fundamental questions such as if art is a mirror what happens when we place ourselves between it and the camera The traditional trajectory from photographer to subject via the camera has been subverted and with it the nature of images and our perception of them The artselfie makes every participant both protagonist and collaborator consumer and producer Including an introduction by Douglas Coupland author of Generation X Tales for an Accelerated Culture and ruthless observer of contemporary society and a discussion between Simon Castets director of the Swiss Institute in New York and co founder of the 89 project and DIS artselfie allows us to experience how significant and seductive this viral phenomenon is

Care Brooke McAlary, 2021-06-16 From the internationally bestselling author of SLOW comes a new call to arms for a new approach to living well for everyone Tiny acts of care are everywhere A smile passed between strangers A moment spent noticing the light through the leaves A homemade meal shared with friends A parent chasing their child around the park smiles spread on their faces But when the world we live in is overwhelmingly a world of disconnection pain and division it makes sense to ask whether these acts of care beautiful moments of delight connection and kindness that they are really matter at all Brooke McAlary believes they matter In fact she believes they might be some of the most important actions we will ever take Now more than ever we re burnt out heartsick and overwhelmed by a world full of problems that seem too big to fix The solution doesn t lie in caring less and switching off Nor does it lie in caring more and throwing ourselves into further burnout The radical solution is to learn how to care small Tiny even Care The radical art of taking time explores what it means to care in small powerful ways for ourselves our loved ones and our communities and reveals that caring doesn t need to cost us our wellbeing happiness or connection to the world That making simple changes to how we live spending more time in nature putting down our devices and connecting with each other face to face finding awe and wonder in the world around us and remembering how to play will have ripple effects that reach far beyond our own corner of the planet With unwavering compassion and understanding Brooke McAlary takes us on a journey to rediscover the small pleasures that create large ripples reminding us that no one needs to shoulder the burden of doing it all by themselves we only need to cast our eyes forward and start small with care

All in Her Head Elizabeth Comen, 2024-02-13 Finalist for the 2025 PEN E O Wilson Literary Science Writing Award USA Today Bestseller All in Her Head accomplishes a remarkable feat of storytelling By combining essential medical histories about women s bodies with all the narrative propulsion of a medical thriller Comen has written a must read compelling and important book Siddhartha Mukherjee Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Emperor of All Maladies and The Song of the Cell Wow This book will upend everything you thought you knew about your body while empowering you to make better decisions moving forward Through storytelling extensive research and easy recommendations Dr Elizabeth Comen has given us all a priceless road map to reclaim our agency Eve Rodsky author of Fair Play A surprising groundbreaking and fiercely entertaining medical history that is both a collective narrative of women s bodies and a call to action for a new conversation around women s health For as long as medicine has been a practice women s bodies have been treated like objects to be practiced on examined and ignored idealized and sexualized shamed subjugated mutilated and dismissed The history of women s healthcare is a story in which women themselves have too often been voiceless a narrative instead written from the perspective of men who styled themselves as authorities on the female of the species yet uninformed by women s own voices thoughts fears pain and experiences The result is a cultural and societal legacy that continues to shape the mis treatment and care of women While the modern age has seen significant advancements in the medical field the notion that female bodies are flawed inversions of the male ideal lingers on as do the pervasive societal stigmas and lingering ignorance that shape women s health and relationships with their own bodies Memorial Sloan Kettering oncologist and medical historian Dr Elizabeth Comen draws back the curtain on the collective medical history of women to reintroduce us to our whole bodies how they work the actual doctors and patients whose perspectives and experiences laid the foundation for today's medical thought and the many oversights that still remain unaddressed. With a physician's knowledge and empathy, Dr. Comen follows the road map of the eleven organ systems to share unique and untold stories drawing upon medical texts and journals, interviews with expert physicians as well as her own experience treating thousands of women. Empowering women to better understand ourselves and advocate for care that prioritizes healthy and joyful lives for us and generations to come, All in Her Head is written with humor, wisdom, and deep scientific and cultural insight. Eye-opening, sometimes enraging yet always captivating, this shared memoir of women's medical history is an essential contribution to a holistic understanding and much-needed reclaiming of women's history and bodies. Engineering, 1919 Missouri Conservationist, 2014 Introduction to Geospatial Technologies Bradley A. Shellito, 2019-10-25 Written for majors and non-majors alike, Introduction to Geospatial Technologies demonstrates the wide range of geographic technologies available to and used by geographers today. Each chapter contains an introduction to the key concepts and a lab activity so that in addition to gaining a basic foundation of knowledge, students also obtain hands-on experience with the relevant software. The Best American Science and Nature Writing 2023 Carl Zimmer, Jaime Green, 2023-10-17 Award-winning writer, columnist, and journalist Carl Zimmer selects twenty science and nature essays that represent the best examples of the form published in 2022. What's most compelling about a scientific story is the way it challenges us to think about the concepts we take for granted, writes guest editor Carl Zimmer in his introduction. The essays in this year's Best American Science and Nature Writing probe at the ordinary and urge us to think more deeply about our place in the world around us. From a hopeful portrait of a future for people with Alzheimer's disease to a fascinating exploration of the rise of nearsightedness in children to the heroic story of a herd of cows that evaded a hurricane, these selections reveal how science and nature shape our everyday lives. With tremendous intelligence, clarity, and insight, this anthology offers an expansive look at where we are and where we are headed. The Best American Science and Nature Writing 2023 includes JESSICA CAMILLE AGUIRRE, VANESSA GREGORY SABRINA, IMBLER FERRIS, JABR, MARION, RENAULT, ELIZABETH SVOBODA, NATALIE WOLCHOVER, SARAH ZHANG, and others. The Big Book of Maker Camp Projects Sandy Roberts, 2019-09-13 Publisher's Note: Products purchased from Third Party sellers are not guaranteed by the publisher for quality, authenticity, or access to any online entitlements included with the product.
