North America Europe and Australia who offer divergent perspectives on the many facets of the public art process The collection examines the continual evolution of public art moving beyond monuments and memorials to examine more fully the development of socially engaged public art practice Topics include constructing new models for developing and commissioning temporary and performance based public artworks understanding the challenges of a socially engaged public art practice vs social programming and policymaking the social inclusiveness of public art the radical developments in public art and social practice pedagogy and unravelling the relationships between public artists and the communities they serve The Everyday Practice of Public Art offers a diverse perspective on the increasingly complex nature of artistic practice in the public realm in the twenty first century

Sharing the Land, Sharing a Future Katherine Graham,David Newhouse,2021-06-11 Sharing the Land Sharing a Future looks to both the past and the future as it examines the foundational work of the Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples RCAP and the legacy of its 1996 report It assesses the Commission s influence on subsequent milestones in Indigenous Canada relations and considers our prospects for a constructive future RCAP s five year examination of the relationships of First Nations Metis and Inuit peoples to Canada and to non Indigenous Canadians resulted in a new vision for Canada and provided 440 specific recommendations many of which informed the subsequent work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada TRC Considered too radical and difficult to implement RCAP s recommendations were largely ignored but the TRC reiterates that longstanding inequalities and imbalances in Canada s relationship with Indigenous peoples remain and quite literally calls us to action With reflections on RCAP s legacy by its co chairs leaders of national Indigenous organizations and the Minister of Crown Indigenous Relations and leading academics and activists this collection refocuses our attention on the groundbreaking work already performed by RCAP Organized thematically it explores avenues by which we may establish a new relationship build healthy and powerful communities engage citizens and move to action

Dads, Kids, and Fitness William Marsiglio,2016-10-31 Now more than ever American dads act as hands on caregivers who are devoted to keeping themselves and their families healthy Yet men are also disproportionately likely to neglect their own health care diets and exercise routines bad habits that they risk passing on to their children In Dads Kids and Fitness William Marsiglio challenges dads to become more health conscious in how they live and raise their children His conclusions are drawn not only from his revealing interviews with a diverse sample of dads and pediatric healthcare professionals but also from his own unique personal experiences as a teenage father who thirty one years later became a later life dad to a second son Marsiglio s research highlights the value of treating dads as central players in what he calls the social health matrix which can serve both healthy children and those with special needs He also outlines how schools healthcare facilities religious groups and other organizations can help dads make a positive imprint on their families health fitness and well being Anchored in compelling life stories of joy tragedy and resilience Dads Kids and Fitness extends and deepens public conversation about health at a pivotal historical moment Its
