Restless in Sleep Country Paul Huebener, 2024-04-15 Sleep and the lack of it is a public obsession and an enormous everyday quandary Troubled sleep tends to be seen as an individual problem and personal responsibility to be fixed by better habits and tracking gadgets but the reality is more complicated Sleep is a site of politics culture and power In Restless in Sleep Country Paul Huebener pulls back the covers on cultural representations of sleep to show how they are entangled with issues of colonialism homelessness consumer culture technology and privacy the exploitation of labour and the effects of the Covid 19 pandemic Even though it almost entirely evades direct experience sleep is the subject of a variety of potent narratives each of which can serve to clarify and shape its role in our lives In Canada cultural visions of slumber circulate through such diverse forms as mattress commercials billboards comic books memoirs experimental poetry and bedtime story phone apps By guiding us through this imaginative landscape Huebener shows us how to develop a critical literacy of sleep Lying down and closing our eyes is an act that carries surprisingly high stakes going beyond individual sleep troubles Restless in Sleep Country illuminates the idea of sleep as a crucial site of inequity struggle and gratification

Recruit, Hire and Retain Great People Kerry Johnson MBA, Ph.D., 2022-08-23 Recruiting hiring and retaining great people are the most important skill sets any manager can acquire With talented and dedicated people any business can succeed Without great people every business will fail Yet many managers recruit only when they have a job opening often settling for those who are only good enough Yet hiring the right people is an ongoing process not a one time activity Did you know that 83% of workers are unhappy with their jobs and that 68% are actively looking for a new career opportunity Great managers keep in contact frequently with qualified recruits and talk to candidates every 3 months Poor managers wait until they have a need and then hire the wrong people Unfortunately many managers often hire those who are most like them instead of who are best suited for the open position But great managers hire slow fire fast They interview effectively and check the candidate's past performance before making an offer How someone produced and behaved in the past is likely how they will produce and behave in the future In this book How to Recruit and Hire and Retain Great People you will learn The 3 month call script and how you can use it to source great people How to use the 5 Step Bridge to find out each candidate's needs and goals The 11 key questions and how to weight them to objectively select the right person for the right job The 4 Step Training Approach that will help each candidate produce faster results How the Let's Assume Technique will help you retain great people longer
